Dr. Lazar specializes in diagnosing and treating a wide range of health issues affecting infants, children, teenagers, and young adults up to the age of 21, ensuring that every young patient receives comprehensive medical care tailored to their specific needs.

With a solid educational foundation acquired from the esteemed State University of New York Downstate Health Sciences University, where he earned his medical degree from 2012 to 2016, and a Bachelor of Arts from Brooklyn College, Dr. Lazar has equipped himself with the knowledge and skills necessary to excel in pediatric medicine. His rigorous training has prepared him to oversee not just the physical health of his patients, but also their mental and emotional wellbeing.

Dr. Lazar is adept at diagnosing and treating a variety of conditions, including infections, injuries, diseases, and developmental disorders. His approach emphasizes preventative healthcare, allowing families to engage in proactive measures that support their children's health and development. By fostering open communication with both children and their parents, Dr. Lazar helps families navigate the complex healthcare landscape, ensuring that they feel supported and informed throughout their healthcare journey.

"Working with children is a privilege and a responsibility I take very seriously," said Dr. Lazar. "I strive to create a safe and welcoming environment where young patients can feel comfortable discussing their health concerns. My goal is not only to treat illnesses but also to promote a healthy lifestyle among children and their families."

At Pediatrics Associates Brooklyn, Dr. Lazar collaborates closely with a team of skilled healthcare professionals, all dedicated to providing high-quality, patient-centered care. The practice is known for its commitment to the community, offering a range of services designed to meet the unique needs of children and their families.

For parents seeking a compassionate and knowledgeable pediatrician, Dr. Eli Lazar stands out as a trusted healthcare provider in Brooklyn. His expertise, along with his commitment to the holistic health of children, makes him an essential part of the Pediatrics Associates team.
