ILLUSION VEILS THE MATRIX

CARLI B. FRUEH

Los Angeles, California Feb 23, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - In "Illusion Veils The Matrix, We Architect Our Own Reality," Carli B. Frueh invites readers on a transformative journey through the layers of consciousness and the power of self-creation. This book challenges the very fabric of what we perceive as reality, blending profound philosophical insights with personal experiences to illuminate how we shape our existence.

The Journey from Darkness to Light:

Carli B. Frueh's narrative is deeply personal, offering a poignant account of overcoming the darkness of recent personal tragedy through the enlightening philosophies found in "Seth Speaks." This book has been a pivotal source of healing and inspiration, guiding Carli from despair to a renewed sense of purpose and understanding.

Dedication:

This book is lovingly dedicated to the intrepid spirits, those explorer souls who, with unwavering conviction, understand that the tapestry of our existence is woven by our own hands; that we are, indeed, the architects of our own reality. It is for those who dive fearlessly into the depths of consciousness, recognizing that every thought, every belief, shapes the world around us. You are the brave ones who challenge the matrix of illusion, who see beyond the veil of conventional wisdom to touch the very essence of truth. Here's to you, the dreamers who dare to manifest their visions, the creators who bend reality to their will, and the believers in the profound interconnectedness of all things. May this book serve as a beacon, guiding you further on your journey to sculpt a universe of your own design, where the only limits are those we place upon ourselves.

Chapter Highlights:

Chapter 1: WHAT DREAMS THE FABRIC OF OUR WAKING WORLD?

- Philosophy of Reality: Delves into metaphysics, examining the nature of reality, independent existence, and the quest for fundamental truth.
- Seth's Philosophy: Explores how individuals influence their reality through thought, belief, emotion, and expectation, proposing a nonlinear perception of time where past, present, and future coexist.
- Dreams and Consciousness: Posits dreams as not mere fantasies but as real, multidimensional experiences that profoundly affect our waking life.

About the Author:

Carli B. Frueh is an insightful thinker and writer, whose explorations into the realms of consciousness have offered solace and guidance to many. Her experiences, both personal and philosophical, are interwoven throughout this book, offering readers not just a theory but a lived testament to the power of belief and intention.
