She believes that "hard work, trust in the process, and genuinely caring for people" are key ingredients in making real estate transactions seamless and stress-free.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Heather is committed to giving back to her community. Motivated by the belief that "if you can, you should," she actively participates in volunteer work and seeks to create positive change in her surroundings.

When she is not busy helping clients achieve their real estate goals, Heather enjoys outdoor activities, cooking and baking (which she considers her love language), traveling with her family, paddleboarding, and cheering on her favorite football teams. She cherishes her marriage to her husband, Scott, and delights in raising their two sons, Xian and Tytan.
