Independent hip-hop artist Regulator (Roy Sandoval) is making significant strides in the music industry with the release of his latest single, "Stronger" featuring Snoop Dogg.

Ruidoso, New Mexico Feb 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Independent hip-hop artist Regulator (Roy Sandoval) is making significant strides in the music industry with the release of his latest single, "Stronger" featuring Snoop Dogg. This uplifting track, released under Regulator Recordings INC, serves as an anthem of resilience and personal growth, encouraging listeners to overcome life's challenges. Since its release on November 10, 2024, "Stronger" has garnered substantial attention across social media platforms. The track has been featured in over 560 reels on Instagram and Facebook, amassing more than 5 million views. Listeners have embraced the song as a motivational backdrop for various life events, from achieving fitness milestones to celebrating personal achievements.

A Journey from Humble Beginnings

Born on December 19, 1988, in Portales, New Mexico, and raised in the small town of Ruidoso, Regulator's musical journey began at the age of 13. Initially starting as a Christian rapper, he later shifted his focus towards political themes after observing societal issues. In 2012, he signed a lifetime distribution deal with JMD Distribution/Ingrooves/Universal Music Group, leading to the creation of his independent label, Regulator Recordings INC.

Over the years, Regulator has released seven albums worldwide, including titles such as War Games, Classified, Still Smoking, 50 Armed States, War Among Nations, The Interpretation of Dreams, and The Ghost and The Darkness. His work has been featured in eight international magazines, notably the 2012 issue of High Times Magazine. His music is characterized by raw storytelling and socially conscious messages, establishing him as a distinctive voice in the hip-hop scene.

Collaborations with Industry Icons

The collaboration with Snoop Dogg on "Stronger" marks a significant milestone in Regulator's career. The track was written by both artists and produced by Anno Domini. The partnership with Snoop Dogg, a prominent figure in West Coast hip-hop, has elevated Regulator's profile in the industry.

Building on this momentum, Regulator is set to collaborate with Eminem on an upcoming track titled "Shady Intentions 2", scheduled for release in 2025. This collaboration is anticipated to further cement Regulator's position in the music industry and expand his audience reach.

Artist's Vision and Personal Interests

Beyond his musical endeavors, Regulator is deeply committed to his faith in God and Jesus Christ. He is passionate about music writing and production and is also involved in breeding and raising AKC Doberman Pinschers, reflecting his love for animals. An avid reader, his home serves as a recording studio, library, and Doberman sanctuary. Additionally, he enjoys gaming, particularly in the open-world genre.

Reflecting on his journey and recent achievements, Regulator stated, "Music is my passion and my way of inspiring others. Stronger is about pushing through challenges, no matter the circumstances. Collaborating with legends like Snoop Dogg and Eminem is a dream come true, and I can't wait to share more with my fans."
