

Jessica Stephens: Pioneering Excellence in Radiation Oncology as a Senior Medical Physicist at Siemens Healthineers

New Leadership in Advanced Oncology Solutions Enhances Quality Assurance for Clinics Nationwide

New York City, New York Feb 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Siemens Healthineers proudly announces the impactful contributions of Jessica Stephens, a certified senior medical physicist, who is making significant strides in the field of radiation oncology through her role in the Advanced Oncology Solutions division. With 15 years of clinical experience and a passion for mathematics and imaging, Ms. Stephens is recognized for her expertise in radiation oncology and imaging quality assurance, providing superior technical support to clinics across the United States.

Jessica Stephens earned her Master's degree in Medical Physics from Duke University in 2007, following her Bachelor's degree in mathematics from Valdosta State University in 2004. As a certified professional by the American Board of Radiology, she specializes in annual quality assurance for clinics in transition, ensuring they meet current technology standards and regulatory requirements. Her extensive knowledge spans multiple vendor platforms, including HDR and various linear accelerators such as TrueBeam, Clinic, and Tomotherapy.

In her role, Ms. Stephens provides critical support to both small and large clinics, leveraging the resources of Advanced Oncology Solutions—a joint division of Siemens Healthineers and Varian Medical Systems. This innovative division allows clinics to access a networked, skilled technical workforce that is proficient in the latest advancements in radiation oncology. “Our goal is to empower clinics with the expertise and tools necessary to deliver safe and effective treatments,” says Ms. Stephens. “I am committed to ensuring that our partners receive the highest quality of care.”

Jessica's commitment extends beyond her professional responsibilities; she is also an active member of several professional organizations, including the American Association of Physicists in Medicine. Additionally, she participates in charitable efforts with organizations like the American Red Cross, the Alzheimer's Association, and the American Cancer Society, reflecting her dedication to community and healthcare improvement.

When asked about the secrets to her success, Ms. Stephens attributes it to the influence of her extraordinary mother and her lifelong love for mathematics and imaging. Her drive and dedication exemplify the spirit of excellence at Siemens Healthineers, positioning her as a leader in advancing oncology solutions nationwide.
