

Jose A. Rodriguez, MD Celebrates Over Two Decades of Dedication at Hospital for Special Surgery

Renowned Orthopedic Surgeon Continues to Make Significant Contributions to Joint Reconstruction and Education

New York City, New York Feb 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Hospital for Special Surgery (HSS) proudly recognizes Dr. Jose Rodriguez, a distinguished orthopedic surgeon and a vital member of its medical staff, for his unwavering commitment to patient care and medical education over the past two decades. A native New Yorker, Dr. Rodriguez has become a leading figure in the field of hip and knee surgery since joining HSS in 1996.

Born and raised in the Bronx, Dr. Rodriguez completed his undergraduate studies at Harvard College before earning his medical degree from the prestigious Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. His extensive training included an internship at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center, a residency at the Hospital for Special Surgery, and fellowships in Arthritis and Joint Reconstruction and Hip Surgery in New York and Bern, Switzerland, respectively.

Dr. Rodriguez began his practice at Lenox Hill Hospital in 1995, where he served as Chief of Adult Reconstruction and Director of the Fellowship in Minimally Invasive and Complex Hip and Knee Surgery before returning to HSS full-time. He has also held the position of Clinical Professor of Orthopedic Surgery at Hofstra School of Medicine, demonstrating his commitment to educating the next generation of orthopedic surgeons.

Throughout his illustrious career, Dr. Rodriguez has received numerous accolades, including the James Rand Award for Outstanding Paper in Knee Surgery and the Maurice Cowan Award for Excellence in Medical Education. His dedication to mentorship was further recognized with the Chitranjan S. Ranawat Mentorship Award.

In addition to his clinical expertise, Dr. Rodriguez is a prolific researcher with 73 peer-reviewed publications and several ongoing studies in hip and knee surgery. His contributions extend to editorial roles on the boards of several prominent medical journals, further solidifying his influence in the orthopedic community.

Dr. Rodriguez's commitment goes beyond the operating room; he is a retired Major in the US Army Reserve, having honorably served two tours in Iraq. His military service reflects the same dedication he brings to his patients and the medical field.

As Dr. Rodriguez continues to advance orthopedic surgery and education at HSS, his legacy of excellence and service remains a source of inspiration for both colleagues and patients alike.
