

Lights4fun Launches TruGarden™ Collection with 20% Seasonal Discount"

Lights4fun, the UK's leading decorative lighting specialist, announces the launch of its TruGarden™ collection alongside a limited-time 20% discount.

Leeds, West Yorkshire Feb 10, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - The new collection complements their existing ranges, including the popular TruGlow® candle series and Core Connect festoon lights, which can connect up to 75 metres. Recent innovations include the Perth White Garden Lantern Duo and Porto Lantern Duo, featuring TruGlow® technology for authentic candlelight ambiance.

"Our focus remains on transforming spaces through thoughtfully designed lighting solutions," states a company spokesperson. "From Easter decorations to year-round garden illumination, each product undergoes rigorous testing to ensure longevity and performance."

The company's commitment to quality is reflected in its customer-centric policies, including free delivery on orders over £70 and a 30-day returns process. Their connectable lighting technology allows for extensive installations, with Pro Connect festoons offering connectivity up to 150 metres.

Recent expansions include seasonal collections for Easter and Valentine's Day, alongside permanent installations such as the highly-rated Ebony Lantern Wall Light. All products are supported by detailed installation guides and customer service from their Yorkshire base.

"We're not just selling lights; we're helping customers create atmospheric spaces throughout their homes and gardens," notes the spokesperson. "Our two-year warranty demonstrates our confidence in product durability and performance."
