With over 30 years of extensive experience in the real estate industry, Linda has been providing exceptional service and expertise since 1991, specializing in a wide range of transactions including new construction, short sales, foreclosures, and acreage properties.

Linda's approach to real estate is marked by a commitment to collaboration, ensuring that her clients experience seamless transactions whether they are buying or selling their homes. Her unwavering dedication to transparency, honesty, and integrity guarantees that clients receive realistic and well-informed advice throughout the process.

Before launching her successful career in real estate, Linda spent 12 years as a registered nurse in critical care, where she developed excellent problem-solving skills and the ability to make quick decisions under pressure. This diverse background empowers her to offer personalized services tailored to the specific needs of her clients in the areas of Minnetonka, Minneapolis, Chanhassen, Maple Grove, Plymouth, and throughout Hennepin, Carver, and Ramsey counties.

"I love helping clients sell their homes and find their dream properties," says Linda. "My work is about making a positive impact in the community, and I cherish the relationships I build throughout the process."

Linda Johnson's success can be attributed to her genuine care for people, unwavering Christian values, and diverse experiences, making every interaction with her truly exceptional.
