

Madrid Bullfighting Announces the Thrilling Return of Corridas de Toros to the Iconic Plaza de Las Ventas

The 2025 bullfighting season is set to showcase a roster of top bullfighters, with renowned matadors poised to captivate audiences with their peerless skill and unyielding courage in the face of the fierce and formidable bulls.

Madrid, Spain Feb 5, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Madrid Bullfighting (<https://madridbullfighting.com/>), the leading online destination for securing tickets to the legendary Plaza de Las Ventas bullring, is abuzz with excitement to announce the much-anticipated return of the corridas de toros (bullfighting) season. This year promises a spectacular showcase of courage, artistry, and the rich Spanish cultural heritage that has captivated audiences for centuries.

Madrid Bullfighting offers more than just tickets. For the uninitiated, the website provides informative resources that delve into the history, traditions, and artistry of bullfighting. This ensures a well-rounded understanding and appreciation for this unique cultural phenomenon.

The most traditional and prestigious ranches and bullfighters

The presence of already established bullfighters such as Julián López “El Juli”, José María Manzanares, Enrique Ponce, Morante de la Puebla, etc. is expected. These bullfighters are synonymous with guarantee and usually occupy the most important posters. Young talents such as Álvaro Lorenzo, Pablo Aguado, Tomás Rufo and others will seek to confirm their position in the bullfighting elite and conquer the demanding public of Las Ventas.

The most traditional and prestigious ranches, such as Victorino Martín, Miura, Núñez del Cuvillo, Jandilla, etc., usually have a prominent presence in Las Ventas.

Key Dates

As the anticipation for the 2025 bullfighting season builds, several key dates mark the calendar, signifying the commencement of a series of events that will showcase the very best of Spanish bullfighting tradition. From the stirring beginnings of the season in March to the climactic events that unfold in the height of summer, these key dates hold a special significance for aficionados and enthusiasts alike, representing an unmissable opportunity to witness the artistry and bravery of the matadors and the power and prowess of the bulls.

March, April and May 2025

The Las Ventas bullring already has a start date for the 2025 season. It will be next March 23, Sunday, and with a bullfight. This has been shown by Rafael García Garrido -general director of Plaza 1, the management company of the monumental.

In addition to the aforementioned bullfight for March 23, the following Sunday, March 30, a bullfight with picadors is scheduled.

Already in the month of April, and as is tradition, the bullfights will be held on Palm Sunday (April 13) and Easter Sunday (April 20).

About Madrid Bullfighting

Madrid Bullfighting is the premier online destination for securing tickets to the iconic Plaza de Las Ventas bullring in Madrid, Spain. Our user-friendly platform offers a convenient and secure way to experience the thrill of corridas de toros from anywhere in the world. We are dedicated to promoting Spanish cultural heritage and ensuring a seamless experience for all visitors.

Media Contact

Marketing Positivo

@gmail.com

Source : Madrid Bullfighting

See on IssueWire