

Make Jesus Great Again: A Faith-Based Movement Begins

Baker, Louisiana Mar 13, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - A powerful new movement is taking shape with a simple yet bold message: Make Jesus Great Again. Launching February 6, 2025, this faith-based initiative is starting with a collection of royal blue baseball caps, with more colors to follow. But this is more than just apparel—it's a call to action for believers and those in need of a reminder of Jesus Christ's presence in their lives.

"Faith is declining, and millions are struggling," says the movement's founder, who wishes to remain anonymous. "Maybe a simple yet powerful message can help bring people back."

Alongside the signature caps, T-shirts and hats are also available through leading online retailers, including Shopify, Etsy, Printify, and Amazon.

A Movement for All

Make Jesus Great Again isn't just for individuals—it's for big and small churches, faith-based schools, organizations, and anyone who believes in Jesus Christ. The goal? To reach the entire world and reignite faith one person at a time.

More Than a Message

Most proceeds will go toward setting up a nonprofit organization focused on world and scriptures research, ensuring that this movement not only spreads faith but also deepens understanding of the Word.
