

Marvelloux Design Academy to Celebrate Graduating Batch with Grand Convocation on February 21, 2025

Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala Mar 27, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Marvelloux Design Academy is thrilled to announce its much-anticipated convocation ceremony for the latest graduating batch on February 21, 2025. This special event will honor the hard work, creativity, and achievements of students who have successfully completed their extensive training in UI/UX and digital design.

With this convocation, Marvelloux recognizes the outstanding accomplishments of the graduates as they step into the ever-evolving design industry. With hands-on experience and cutting-edge skills acquired at the academy, these graduates are set to bring innovation and creativity to the professional world.

“We’re incredibly proud of our students and their journey with us. This convocation marks the beginning of a new chapter for them as they transition into industry experts and changemakers,” said Arjun Babu, CEO of Marvelloux Design Academy.

Friends, family, industry professionals, and design enthusiasts are invited to join the celebration of these talented graduates. The event promises to be an inspiring occasion, featuring speeches, project showcases, and moments of recognition.
