

Max Acro / San Diego Paragliding School Announces Upcoming USHPA Tandem Paragliding Clinic

San Diego, California Feb 17, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Max Acro Paragliding (maxacro.com) and San Diego Paragliding School (sandiegoparaglidingsschool.com) are excited to announce the next USHPA Tandem Paragliding Clinic, a comprehensive training program designed to help pilots earn their USHPA Tandem Instructor Certification. Taking place on March 14-16, 2025 at Little Black Gliderport, San Diego California, this clinic is perfect for pilots looking to advance their skills and become certified to fly tandem under the United States Hang Gliding and Paragliding Association (USHPA) program.

This USHPA-approved tandem training is led by world-class pilot and instructor Max Marien, who will guide participants through the skills, techniques, and requirements needed to become a safe and proficient tandem pilot. The course includes both practical flight training and theoretical instruction, ensuring pilots are well-prepared to meet USHPA standards.

“Becoming a tandem pilot is an exciting step in any pilot’s journey,” says Max Marien. “This clinic is designed to give pilots the knowledge, confidence, and skills necessary to safely and effectively share the sky with others.”

Clinic Highlights:

- ❑ USHPA Tandem Instructor Certification Course
- ❑ Comprehensive instruction on takeoff, in-flight management, and landings
- ❑ Hands-on tandem flight training with real-time coaching and feedback
- ❑ Safety procedures, risk management, and passenger communication training
- ❑ Ground school covering USHPA requirements, best practices, and testing preparation

This clinic is open to pilots who meet USHPA’s eligibility requirements for tandem training. With limited spots available, early registration is strongly encouraged.
