for its small-town charm and strong community bonds.

A proud native of the Hereford Zone in Northern Baltimore County, she graduated with a Business degree from Mount Saint Mary's University in 2006. This dedication to client relationships has positioned Shannon as a trusted advisor in the competitive real estate landscape.

Outside of her professional life, she stays active through spin classes and running, enjoys learning about nutrition, and cherishes family time at the beach. She also loves movie dates with her husband and is an avid Baltimore Ravens supporter during football season.

Attributing her success to unwavering discipline, Shannon starts each day at 4:30 AM, focusing on exercise and personal growth through audiobooks, while nurturing meaningful relationships that often evolve into lifelong friendships.
