

A Summer Soirée with Sunayana Chibba x Summer by Priyanka Gupta

Celebrating pastel hues, fine embroideries, and timeless Indian fashion

New Delhi, Delhi Feb 6, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - It was an afternoon of warmth, elegance, and meaningful connections as Sunayana Chibba (renowned luxury brand consultant) hosted a Summer Soirée to introduce her closest circle of friends and family to Summer by Priyanka Gupta. Set against the backdrop of soft music, seasonal blooms, and delicate hors d'oeuvres, the event served as an intimate showcase of the label's charming new collection of Indian ensembles—perfect for summer weddings, festive gatherings, and special celebrations. The event was hosted at Summer's flagship store at D6, Defence Colony.

The event drew a dynamic and engaged crowd, including fashion lovers, influencers, and loyal customers eager to explore the brand's latest line of embroidered summer kurtas, chiffon sarees, and signature tunics. Stylists were available to offer personalized recommendations, and guests indulged in a curated fashion experience that blended comfort with luxury.

What stood out most was Priyanka's distinctive USP—her detailed hand embroideries. The much-loved Machan Collection, featuring wildlife-inspired embroidery on featherlight organzas, captivated everyone. Also receiving praise were the soft chikankari kurtas—ideal for Iftaar evenings and Eid celebrations—and chiffon sarees in breezy pastels that embodied the ease of summer.

In addition to Summer's inimitable clothing, guests were invited to shop fine jewellery from Parina International (Jaipur) and delicate floral jewellery by Vintage Snob. Together, these offerings gave women a chance to build their complete summer wedding wardrobe with thoughtfully paired looks.

The event was graced by the likes of Shazia Ilmi, Seema Gumber, Ritu Rakheja and several other notable women from Delhi's cultural and social circles. Social media buzzed with images, reels, and glowing captions as guests shared their favorite pieces, styling tips, and what they loved about Summer by Priyanka Gupta.

To elevate the experience further, attendees participated in live styling sessions, enjoyed expert fashion consultations, and engaged in an interactive Q&A, turning the showcase into an immersive, personalized experience.

Some glowing words from our guests:

❓ "Every piece felt exclusive, refined, and effortlessly elegant!"

❓ "The jewellery and outfits complemented each other so beautifully—it was a complete luxury experience!"

❓ "A perfectly organized event that truly captured the essence of timeless fashion."

Summer by Priyanka Gupta continues to carve its niche as a label that is rooted in craft, known for its soul, and loved for its lightness.
