

AD Lefaro: A Music Producer And Musical Artist

From Secret Learning to His Debut Track 'Dancing in Wood'

Hooghly, West bengal Mar 13, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Abdulla Dargahi, known professionally as AD Lefaro, is an emerging independent Indian music producer and musical artist from Khanakul, Hooghly, India. Born on October 27, 2005, he grew up in a modest environment with his parents, Faruk Dargahi and Afroja Khatun, and his brother, Adil Dargahi.

AD Lefaro's love for music began at the age of 12 or 13 when he became fascinated with how music is made. Despite not coming from a musical background or having any formal training, he taught himself music production through YouTube, Google, and other online sources — all without his family knowing. For years, he quietly developed his skills, creating and experimenting with sounds in secret.

His biggest influence has been Avicii, a Swedish music producer and musical artist whose music inspired him to explore electronic sounds and develop his own style. He also draws creative inspiration from artists like Owl City, Electronomia, Alan Walker, and K-391.

In 2025, at the age of 19, AD Lefaro released his debut track, Dancing in Wood under Almighty1 Music, a London-based label. This release marks the beginning of his journey as a professional music producer, setting the foundation for his future in the music industry.
