

AdwebTech and Utimaco Revolutionize Automated Bulk Digital Document Signing with Secure Key Storage and Automation

AdwebTech and Utimaco Announce Cybersecurity Partnership

Mumbai, Maharashtra Apr 1, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Adweb Technologies, a leading innovator in cybersecurity solutions, has announced a strategic partnership with Utimaco, a global leader in IT security solutions. This collaboration aims to transform the digital document signing landscape by integrating AdwebTech's advanced bulk signing software with Utimaco's state-of-the-art u.trust

Hardware Security Module \(HSM\) for secure key storage.

Simplifying Secure Digital Signing for Enterprises

As digital trust becomes a critical priority for enterprises, secure and scalable solutions for document signing are essential. The integration of AdwebTech's high-performance bulk signing software with Utimaco's FIPS-compliant HSMs provides a seamless, secure, and scalable solution, delivering:

End-to-End Security: Private keys are securely stored in Utimaco's tamper-resistant HSMs, eliminating vulnerabilities from traditional storage methods.

- Massive Scalability: Organizations can sign thousands of documents quickly and efficiently, optimizing operations and reducing costs.
- Regulatory Compliance: The solution adheres to global security standards, including eIDAS, the Indian IT Act, and other compliance frameworks.

Empowering Enterprises with Seamless Integration

The AdwebTech-Utimaco partnership bridges the gap between security and usability, allowing organizations to:

- Automate and streamline their digital signing processes.
- Protect cryptographic keys against unauthorized access.
- Enhance trust with digitally signed documents that meet the highest security standards.

Leadership Perspectives on the Partnership

Apurva Mody, CEO of Adweb Technologies, stated:

"Our collaboration with Utimaco underscores our commitment to delivering best-in-class security solutions. By integrating our bulk signing software with Utimaco's HSMs, we are empowering enterprises with unmatched security and efficiency in their digital transformation journey."
