About Alice Love

Alice Love is a 95-year-old great-grandmother with a remarkable legacy. She has six children, twenty grandchildren, and thirty-two great-grandchildren. Born and raised on a farm, Alice later pursued a career as a trained nurse. Beyond her medical background, she has cultivated a passion for a wide range of crafts, including spinning, weaving, drawing, cake decorating, and playing the piano. Her love for storytelling and preserving history led to the creation of Manahune A to Z, which has captivated readers across generations.

Her book has been showcased at numerous international book fairs, including events in Frankfurt, Germany; Sharjah, UAE; and London, UK. Through her work, Alice continues to share her love for history, family, and the enduring spirit of past generations.
