

Dr. Thomas Steineke: Bringing Innovative Neurosurgery Expertise to Northern and Central New Jersey

Renowned Neurosurgeon Specializes in Complex Brain Tumors and Neurovascular Conditions

New York City, New York Mar 27, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The Central Neurosurgery and Orthopaedic Associates (CNSO) proudly announces the recruitment of Dr. Thomas Steineke, an esteemed neurosurgeon with two decades of specialized experience in brain tumor and neurovascular surgery. Previously the Chairman of the Hackensack Meridian Health JFK Neuroscience Institute, Dr.

Steineke aims to expand CNSO's capabilities in treating complex brain disorders across northern and central New Jersey.

Academically, he holds a medical degree from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine and completed his fellowship in Pediatric Neurosurgery at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh. He is board-certified by the American Board of Neurological Surgery and is an active member of several professional organizations, including the Congress of Neurological Surgeons and the American Association of Neurological Surgeons.

His surgical expertise encompasses a wide range of conditions affecting both adults and children, including skull base tumors, pituitary tumors, cerebral aneurysms, arteriovenous malformations, and Chiari malformations. His leadership at Hackensack Meridian Health JFK University Medical Center led to its recognition by U.S. News & World Report as a top-performing neurosurgical institute, underscoring his commitment to excellence in patient care.

A pioneer in minimally invasive and endoscopic intracranial surgery, Dr. Steineke is also at the forefront of integrating virtual and augmented reality technologies into neurosurgery. His innovative approach enhances surgical preparation, reduces operative time, and significantly improves patient engagement and outcomes. "By applying cutting-edge technology, we not only optimize surgical precision but also create a more personalized experience for our patients," Dr. Steineke remarked.

CNSO is excited to welcome Dr. Steineke, whose extensive experience allows for greater accessibility to advanced treatment options for patients throughout the region. "I am dedicated to ensuring that each patient receives the highest quality care tailored to their unique needs," he emphasized. With privileges at top neurological hospitals across New Jersey, Dr. Steineke is poised to provide unparalleled service without the constraints of corporate medicine.
