

Dr. Tracy Brown Elected to Centers for Spiritual Living Leadership Council

Annual Election Results Announced

Dallas, Texas Mar 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Centers for Spiritual Living (CSL) has announced that Dr. Tracy Brown, RScP, has been elected to serve a three-year term on its international governing board, The Leadership Council.

CSL is a global community of spiritual centers and individuals located in more than 30 countries. The organization's mission is to provide spiritual tools for personal and global transformation. Its purpose is to awaken humanity to its spiritual magnificence. And its vision is a world that works for everyone.

Dr. Brown is a business owner who has solid experience as a leader in both corporations and nonprofit organizations. She has served on governing boards and advisory councils for more than 15 organizations and associations. In addition, she brings more than three decades of experience in applying universal spiritual principles to create successful daily lives for individuals and groups.

Introduced to New Thought in 1986 by Dr. Donald Curtis, Dr. Brown has become a prominent author, speaker, and retreat leader within the New Thought Movement. Her books include "I Still Turn to Prayer," and "Stained Glass Spirit: Becoming a Spiritual Community Where Oneness Does Not Require Sameness."

She currently hosts "The Inclusive Church" on the New Thought Media Network and also contributes to the Saturday Science of Mind Conversation Series. As a licensed spiritual coach, she actively assists clients in harmonizing their mental, physical, financial, and spiritual priorities.

Within CSL, Dr. Brown has been honored with The Ernest Holmes Award and an honorary doctorate degree for her contributions. She previously served six years on CSL's Leadership Council, including three years as Chair. Currently, she serves on the boards of The Science of Mind Foundation and Camp Cedar Ridge.
