New York City, New York Mar 25, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Fierce Plum, a new publishing company focused on publishing daring books with aplomb, published its first book, Thick, Thin, What the Dragon Let In: Stories, Rhymes, and Reveries by Doworth Howard.

With an eye for new and distinct voices, Fierce Plum's editors chose Doworth Howard's debut, which bundles a broad mix of writing for the discerning reader to set the standard for the publisher.

Ready for a riot?

Strap in for a fast, sharp, funny, savory romp from one of America's underground scribes. With more than 80 original works, Thick, Thin, What the Dragon Let In: Stories, Rhymes, and Reveries offers a bouillabaisse of unconventional stories, poems, lyrics, and ideas.

From sad sack vandals, broken down hoods, and an assassin fighting tooth decay to deep sea ventures, breezy lullabies, and enchanting dreamscapes, this captivating and surprising collection will have you bursting with laughter one minute, haunted moments later, and wondering what unexpected turn Doworth Howard will deliver next.

Doworth Howard started as an artist known for his wire sculptures of people before taking up the pen. Twenty years on, he's shaped a new approach to books.

About Doworth Howard: Doworth Howard is an underground writer and sculptor living in the USA. When he's not writing or sculpting, he likes to take his dog Bailey for long walks on the beach and to town for snacks. He longed to be bicoasta, but now he's amid most of it, somewhere neither here nor there.

About Fierce Plum: Fierce Plum publishes daring books with aplomb. We're into quirky fiction that garners laughs and surprises mixed with titillating pinches of crime and touches of danger.
