

Jose Perez-Tirse, MD: Florida's Leading Infectious Disease Expert Making Strides in Patient Care

Revolutionizing Infectious Disease Management and Treatment at HCA Florida Kendall Hospital

New York City, New York Mar 24, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Jose Perez-Tirse, MD, a board-certified and fellowship-trained infectious disease physician, is recognized as one of Florida's foremost experts in the field of infectious diseases. With a commitment to diagnosing and treating a comprehensive range of conditions, including tropical diseases, Hepatitis C, and AIDS/HIV infections, Dr. Perez-Tirse has built a distinguished career dedicated to improving patient outcomes and advancing medical knowledge.

Since 2014, Dr. Perez-Tirse has served as the Chief and Chairman of Infectious Diseases at HCA Florida Kendall Hospital in Miami, where he also holds the position of Chairman of Infectious Control, Pharmacy, and Therapeutics. His leadership extends to his role as Director of SEPSIS, where he actively develops and participates in protocols for the management of septic shock.

Dr. Perez-Tirse earned his Medical Degree from the Faculty of Health Science at the Mother and Teacher Catholic University in the Dominican Republic in 1985. After relocating to the United States, he completed his residency in internal medicine at West Suburban Medical Center, affiliated with Northwestern University, and then pursued a fellowship in infectious diseases at Hackensack University Medical Center, affiliated with UMDNJ. His experience includes serving as an Associate Professor of Infectious Diseases at Nova Southeastern University from 1999 to 2004 and contributing to significant committees at HCA Florida Kendall Hospital, including the Medical Executive Committee and the Special Committee for Ebola Outbreak Diagnosis.

Dr. Perez-Tirse is double board certified in Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases and is a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine. He is also an active member of various professional organizations, including the American Medical Association, the Dade County Medical Association, the Infectious Diseases Society of America, and the American College of Physicians, and has shared his expertise through lectures for prominent pharmaceutical companies such as Bristol Myers Squibb and Abbott Laboratories.

Recognized for his dedication to patient care, Dr. Perez-Tirse earned recognition as the Top Doctor in Infectious Diseases by Miami Metro Magazine in 1999. He was also nominated for the prestigious Who's Who of Entrepreneurs in 1997 and received several distinguished honors, including the National Leadership Award, Honorary Co-Chairman designation, and Physician of the Year from the National Republican Committee. Additionally, Dr. Perez-Tirse was recognized as one of America's Top Physicians in the field of Infectious Diseases.

When not caring for patients, Dr. Perez-Tirse enjoys playing basketball, reading, and spending quality time with his family. His unwavering commitment to the field of infectious diseases and patient care continues to make a significant impact on the Miami community and beyond.
