

Karmen Dayhuff, NP: Family Nurse Practitioner with IU Health Southern Indiana Physicians

A Committed Healthcare Provider Focused on Exceptional Patient Care in Indiana

New York City, New York Mar 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Karmen Dayhuff, a seasoned nurse practitioner with over two decades of experience, has been making a significant impact on the lives of her patients since she began her career in 2000. Specializing in family medicine and oncology, Karmen currently provides exceptional care at IU Health Primary Care - Ellettsville and holds pivotal nursing leadership roles at IU Health Bloomington Hospital and the Residence at McCormick's Creek.

From her beginnings as a family nurse practitioner, Karmen has been dedicated to enhancing the health and well-being of her community. Since 2009, she has focused her expertise in oncology, where her compassionate approach and extensive knowledge allow her to support patients through some of their most challenging times. “My goal is to provide a safe space for my patients to be heard and understood,” Karmen states. “I feel truly humbled to connect with so many different types of people and help them navigate their health journeys.”

Karmen’s educational journey began at the Indiana State University School of Nursing, where she earned both her Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in Nursing in 2009 and 2014, respectively. Driven by a passion for making a difference, she chose nursing as a career to help individuals and families during critical moments in their lives. Her commitment to patient-centered care has earned her respect and admiration from both colleagues and patients alike.

At IU Health Primary Care - Ellettsville, Karmen is known for her warm demeanor and thorough approach to healthcare. She prioritizes building strong relationships with her patients, ensuring that they feel comfortable discussing their health concerns. Her leadership roles at IU Health Bloomington Hospital and the Residence at McCormick’s Creek further exemplify her dedication to the nursing profession, where she mentors and supports fellow nurses and healthcare workers.

Earning her Doctor of Nursing Practice from Indiana State University School of Nursing in December 2024, Karmen continues to serve her community, remaining focused on her mission to provide high-quality, compassionate healthcare. “I believe that every patient deserves individualized attention and care,” she emphasizes. “It’s about more than just treating a condition; it’s about caring for the person as a whole.”
