

Maya Levy, MD, Redefines In-Home Pediatric Care with Heart, Expertise, and a Focus on Families' Unique Needs

Delivering Comfort, Compassion, and Expert Care Directly to Your Home

New York City, New York Mar 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Maya Levy, MD, a seasoned pediatrician with over two decades of experience in outpatient care, urgent care, telemedicine, and private practice, proudly announces the launch of Pediatric Wellness Concierge By Dr. Levy. This innovative practice, serving Broward and Palm Beach Counties, aims to revolutionize pediatric healthcare by offering personalized, in-home medical services that prioritize the well-being of children and their families.

Dr. Levy's extensive background in pediatric care has equipped her with a deep understanding of the various challenges families face. Her mission with Pediatric Wellness Concierge is to provide accessible, cohesive, and holistic pediatric care that goes beyond traditional methods. "I believe in a personal approach that builds strong relationships with families," says Dr. Levy. "Taking the time to truly understand each child's health and family dynamics allows me to offer comprehensive care that addresses every concern."

At Pediatric Wellness Concierge, Dr. Levy offers a range of services, including wellness checkups, urgent care, and sick visits. Families can choose from flexible membership plans designed to meet their specific needs, whether they require one-time visits or ongoing concierge care. In-home visits are available during weekdays for $300-$500, with discounted fees for each extra child on the same visit. For after-hours visits or consultations on weekends and holidays, prices range from $450 to $750, ensuring that families can receive care when they need it most.

Dr. Levy's educational journey began as an Undergraduate at the University of California Los Angeles where she received her degree in Psycho-biology, she then continued to Israel, where she earned her Medical Degree from the Tel Aviv University Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences. Following her return to the United States, she completed her residency in pediatrics at Kaiser Permanente Southern California in Los Angeles and a fellowship in pediatric pulmonology at Children's Hospital Los Angeles.

The unique structure of Pediatric Wellness Concierge reflects Dr. Levy's dedication to personalized, holistic care. "I want to create lasting relationships with families, ensuring that each child receives the highest level of attention and support for both routine and urgent care needs—right where they feel most comfortable," she explains.

In addition to her professional expertise, Dr. Levy's role as a proud mother of five children enriches her perspective on pediatric care. She understands firsthand the importance of compassionate, attentive healthcare tailored to the individual needs of each child.

Looking to the future, Dr. Levy envisions expanding her practice to include other like-minded healthcare professionals who share her values and commitment to personalized care. "I want to continue providing families with the kind of pediatric care that helps children thrive," she states. "My hope is to bring this approach to even more families in the future."
