

Rachel M. Stevenson, PA-C: A Dedicated Leader in Oncology Care Welcomed to ECU Health Medical Center

Bringing Over Two Decades of Specialized Experience to Enhance Cancer Care in North Carolina

New York City, New York Mar 27, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Mrs. Rachel M. Stevenson, PA-C, a highly skilled Certified Physician Assistant, has joined ECU Health Medical Center as an Outpatient Medical Oncology Physician Assistant. Based at the ECU Health Cancer Care at Eddie and Jo Allison Smith Tower in Greenville, North Carolina, and the Marion L. Shepard Cancer Center in Washington,

Mrs. Stevenson is committed to delivering exceptional patient-centered care to individuals battling cancer.

Her impressive educational background began at Saint Vincent College, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Biology in 1997. This foundational knowledge paved the way for her successful pursuit of a Physician Assistant certificate from Seton Hill University in 2002.

With a career spanning over two decades, Mrs. Stevenson's journey in healthcare commenced in 2002 at Dr. Bob's Medical Weight Loss, where she served as Associate Medical Director until 2007. She then transitioned to the Veterans Administration Community-Based Outpatient Clinic, providing critical care to veterans from 2007 to 2013.

In 2013, Mrs. Stevenson joined UPMC Hillman Cancer Center, where she distinguished herself as an Inpatient Hematology/Oncology Physician Assistant Consultant in collaboration with Excelsa Health Westmoreland Hospital. Her nearly ten years of dedicated service in this role honed her expertise in oncology, equipping her with the skills necessary to navigate the complexities of cancer care.

In 2023, Mrs. Stevenson brought her wealth of experience to ECU Health Medical Center, where she continues to provide compassionate care as an Outpatient Medical Oncology Physician Assistant. In recognition of her expertise, she was invited to join the Verzenio Speakers Bureau for Eli Lilly in 2024, further expanding her contributions to the oncology community.

Mrs. Stevenson remains actively engaged in professional development through her memberships in various organizations, including the American Academy of Physician Assistants, the Pennsylvania Society of Physician Assistants, the American Society of Clinical Oncology, and the American Academy of Health Professionals. These affiliations underscore her dedication to continuous learning and commitment to enhancing the quality of care for her patients.
