

SGI & PowBit Join the World Bank's $1 Billion Reconstruction Fund to Support Lebanon's Revival

New York City, New York Mar 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - On February 28, 2025, Lebanon's Minister of Finance, Yassine Jaber, announced that the World Bank is establishing a $1 billion reconstruction fund to support Lebanon's economic and infrastructure recovery. The World Bank will contribute $250 million in seed funding, while the remaining $750 million will come from global donors.

As a leading global investment firm and an innovative gaming platform, Stone Giant Investment (SGI) and PowBit have actively responded to this international aid initiative by officially joining the donor ranks to contribute to Lebanon's rebuilding efforts. SGI and PowBit have always been committed to social responsibility and fostering global economic development, with a particular focus on regions affected by crises.

The CEO of SGI stated:

"Lebanon is a key economy in the Middle East, yet recent economic challenges have made its recovery difficult. As a global investment firm, we hope that through this donation, we can help the Lebanese people rebuild their homes and restore economic vitality."

A PowBit representative added:

"PowBit has always been committed to social welfare. Beyond providing an exceptional gaming experience for users worldwide, we also aim to take on greater social responsibility. We believe that unity and cooperation can bring about change, and this donation is just the first step in our efforts to support Lebanon's reconstruction."

The donation from SGI and PowBit will be allocated to infrastructure restoration, public service recovery, and humanitarian aid, ensuring that the funds genuinely benefit the Lebanese people in need.

Looking ahead, SGI and PowBit will continue to monitor Lebanon's recovery progress and explore further opportunities for philanthropic collaboration, contributing to the development of global communities.
