

Sisterly Drinkware Unveils Vortex Martini Glasses Following Successful Kickstarter Campaign

Vernon Hills, Illinois Mar 18, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Sisterly Drinkware, known for its elegant and innovative drinkware, is thrilled to announce the official launch of its latest product—the Vortex Martini Glasses. Following a highly successful Kickstarter campaign, which rallied enthusiastic backers to bring this design to life, the glasses are now available for purchase.

Designed to elevate the martini experience, the Vortex Martini Glasses feature a stunning twist design that adds both elegance and functionality. The unique swirling shape enhances the way cocktails are enjoyed, allowing aromas to develop while providing a sophisticated, eye-catching presentation.

"We knew we had something special when we introduced the Vortex Martini Glasses on Kickstarter, but the overwhelming support from our backers truly exceeded our expectations," said Renee, CEO of Sister.ly Drinkware. "This launch is a celebration of the community that believed in our vision and helped make these stunning glasses a reality."

The Kickstarter campaign reached its funding goal through the support of cocktail enthusiasts, home entertainers, and glassware collectors who recognized the beauty and craftsmanship of the Vortex Martini Glasses. As a brand committed to quality and creativity, Sisterly Drinkware continues to expand its collection with elegant, giftable designs that enhance every sip.

Customers can now purchase the Vortex Martini Glasses at <https://www.sisterlydrinkware.com/collections/cocktail-glasses/products/the-vortex-martini-glass>, where they are available for a limited-time special launch price. With their sleek, artistic design and durable construction, these glasses make the perfect addition to any home bar or a thoughtful gift for cocktail lovers.
