

The Future of School Ticketing Is Here: Admittee Tickets

Admittee brings fast, cashless ticketing to school events. No more long lines, lost tickets, or late-night headaches—Just a seamless ticketing for schools of any size.

San Diego, California Mar 5, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - School events are supposed to be exciting. Ticketing shouldn't be the hardest part. Yet schools everywhere are still using cash-only ticket sales, paper stubs, and spreadsheets to track who paid. Why?

Admittee changes that.

Admittee is a digital ticketing platform built just for schools. Whether it's the big game, school dance, or year-end field trip, Admittee makes ticketing simple, secure, and stress-free—for staff, students, and parents.

What Makes Admittee the Future of School Ticketing?

- ❓ Save hours on ticketing: Create event pages in minutes and get real-time accounting.
- ❓ Maximize event revenue: Accept Apple Pay, credit cards, and more. Even add sponsors.
- ❓ Make every event feel pro: Custom-branded tickets and event pages. Save to phones or print at home.
- ❓ Best-in-class technology: Built for schools of all sizes, easy to use, and supports unlimited users.
- ❓ 100% free for schools: Just a small service fee for ticket buyers, and that's it.

Why Now?

Schools have gone digital in almost every other way—why is ticketing still stuck in the past? With Admittee, ticketing finally catches up, giving schools a frictionless, data-driven way to manage events while making life easier for everyone.

What Schools Are Saying:

"Selling tickets online has been a game-changer. Parents love the convenience, and our check-in process has never been faster!"
