

Transform Your Health with Nelli Berberyan, DNP, FNP-C, MSN, PHN: IV Infusions for Vitality and Longevity

Revolutionizing Holistic Health in Los Angeles by Uplifting Spirits and Boosting Energy with Premium IV Therapy

New York City, New York Mar 11, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Armed with a Doctorate in Nursing Practice from West Coast University, Nelli Berberyan is making waves in the health and wellness sector as a Family and Geriatric Nurse Practitioner in Los Angeles, California. As the Founder and CEO of IV101LA, she is on a mission to help individuals feel healthier and rejuvenated through specialized vitamin infusions designed to meet the unique needs of each patient.

With extensive experience in the Cardiothoracic Surgical Department at UCLA and as a dedicated geriatric care provider, Nelli has developed a profound passion for holistic health. Her approach to practicing medicine is rooted in regenerative and integrative methodologies, emphasizing the importance of treating the whole person rather than just the symptoms. As a Doctorate researcher, she has gained significant expertise in longevity research, empowering her to provide the safest and most effective care to her patients.

The cornerstone of Nelli's successful practice is her commitment to personalized care. By utilizing comprehensive blood work, she can identify patients' unique vitamin and nutrient deficiencies, allowing her to create tailored infusion and supplement plans that promote optimal health and vitality. Her focus on preventative care enables her to detect early warning signs of potential diseases, providing patients with the tools they need to take charge of their health.

Nelli believes that education is a vital aspect of patient care. Her dedication to superb patient education ensures that individuals not only receive treatments but also understand the underlying principles of their health. By balancing vitamin infusions, lifestyle modifications, and nutritional recommendations, Nelli is committed to enhancing the quality of life for every patient she serves.

In her pursuit of continuous improvement, Nelli has dedicated herself to researching and exploring innovative solutions within her field, striving to lower costs and improve health outcomes. She is eager to share her knowledge and insights through lectures and public speaking engagements, aiming to inspire others in the healthcare community.

Nelli Berberyan is not just a healthcare provider; she is a passionate advocate for holistic health, dedicated to leading her patients on a journey toward wellness and longevity. As she continues to stay at the forefront of her field, Nelli remains devoted to providing the highest standard of care and the best possible options for her patients.
