

Accelirate Gets a Brand Refresh, Launches New Website with Exclusive Access to a 5-Week AI Agent Activator Plan

Build AI Agents in Just FIVE WEEKS with the Accelirate Activator Plan

Sunrise, Florida Apr 4, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Accelirate, a leading provider of AI-driven automation solutions, is excited to launch a next-gen version of its website designed to better serve businesses exploring Agentic Automation and intelligent workflow solutions. The refreshed site delivers a streamlined and resource-rich experience, offering deeper insights into AI Agents, Intelligent Automation, and Process Orchestration with faster implementation.

"Automation is evolving, and so are we. Our new website provides businesses with a clear roadmap to leverage Agentic Automation effectively," said Ahmed Zaidi, CEO of Accelirate. "We now have a laser focus on AI Agents-driven Automation, ensuring enterprise leaders can easily access expert insights, real-world use cases, and proven solutions to scale automation successfully."

What's New on the Website?

- Expanded Agentic Automation Solutions – A dedicated section covering AI Agents, Agentforce Consulting, and more with industry use cases.
- Success Stories & Thought Leader Insights – Case studies and expert perspectives on real-world automation implementations, first steps, best practices, and more.
- Better UX with Improved Navigation & Resources – Faster access to dedicated blogs, white papers, and technical guides to help businesses understand and adopt AI Agents-driven automation efficiently.
