

Akdas Hayat: Music Producer & a successful YouTuber

Renowned Ambient Music Producer & YouTuber Redefining India's Digital Music Scene

Saharanpur, Uttar Pradesh Apr 29, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Akdas Hayat is a prominent ambient music producer and successful YouTuber, renowned for his captivating compositions and extensive digital influence. With over 1.7 million subscribers across his various channels and tracks generating millions of streams worldwide, he has rapidly become a significant voice in the digital music landscape, particularly recognized for his viral remixes trending on platforms like Instagram Reels and TikTok.

Born on October 31, 2003, in Saharanpur, Uttar Pradesh, India, Akdas Hayat's background is uniquely shaped by a strong foundation in technology. Having pursued Computer Science and Engineering at Glocal University, this technical acumen distinctly informs his creative process and strategic approach to digital platforms, providing a competitive advantage in the contemporary digital milieu.

Akdas's musical journey commenced around 2021, building on a digital presence established with his YouTube channel launch in 2020. Evolving from Lo-Fi music, his signature sound centers around ambient and piano compositions, alongside dynamic remixes and mashups. His professional debut was marked by the single "Gone Away." Known for a prolific and consistent release schedule, his tracks, including popular mashups like the "Anuv Jain Mashup" and "Mitraz X Anuv Jain," frequently trend on major social media platforms, fueling his widespread reach and millions of global streams. His compositions are often described as showcasing mesmerizing ambient compositions and expressive piano pieces, featuring serene, meditative soundscapes and emotive performances.

Beyond production, Akdas is a successful YouTuber, managing multiple channels that have collectively amassed over 1.7 million subscribers. His strategic engagement extends to platforms like Spotify, where he has reached a peak of over 700,000 monthly listeners and maintains over 20K followers on Spotify, demonstrating significant influence across major audio streaming services. His entrepreneurial vision is further evidenced by the founding of Hayat Records, his independent music label, which provides a platform for his original releases and collaborative projects, signifying autonomy over his creative and distribution processes. He is widely recognized for approaching his digital presence, particularly YouTube, as a strategic business venture.

Demonstrating his versatility and interest in diverse creative avenues, Akdas has also authored two insightful e-books, "The Cryptonian," a beginner's guide to cryptocurrencies, and "Digital Marketing," both published in February 2022. His rapid ascent and notable achievements at a young age are frequently highlighted, underscoring his considerable potential and position as a notable figure in the Indian entertainment and digital sectors. Verification as an artist on platforms like Google and Bing further solidifies his professional standing.

In conclusion, Akdas Hayat stands out for his unique blend of musical artistry and entrepreneurial acumen. Adeptly leveraging technology, he has built a significant global audience through his captivating music and strategic digital presence. His proven ability to innovate and engage positions him as a dynamic and influential talent poised for continued growth and impact within India's entertainment and digital landscapes.

Media Contact

Hayat Records

@gmail.com

Source : Issuewire

See on IssueWire