

Alexis Buettner Gurecki, MPA, PA-C: Pioneering Excellence in Allergy and ENT Care

Combining Expertise and Compassion to Elevate Patient Health at Eastern Virginia Ear Nose & Throat Specialists

New York City, New York Apr 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Eastern Virginia Ear Nose & Throat Specialists is proud to highlight the exceptional contributions of Alexis Buettner Gurecki, MPA, PA-C, a Board-Certified Physician Assistant specializing in otolaryngology/ENT, who has been serving patients since joining the practice in July 2009. Operating from the Harbour View office in Suffolk, Virginia, Alexis has dedicated herself to providing comprehensive care to her patients, with a particular focus on allergic disease as Co-Director and Advisor of the Allergy Department.

With a commitment to excellence, Eastern Virginia Ear Nose & Throat Specialists operates across three locations in the Hampton Roads area, offering a full range of medical and surgical care for ear, nose, and throat issues. The practice also provides specialized services in allergy, audiology, and hearing aids, ensuring that patients receive high-quality, patient-centered care. Alexis embodies the practice's mission to enhance the health and well-being of the community through clinical expertise, innovative technology, and a strong ethical foundation.

A native of the Tidewater area, Alexis earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Virginia in 2005 before pursuing her Master of Physician Assistant Studies Degree at Eastern Virginia Medical School, graduating in 2009. She is Board Certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants and is an active member of several professional organizations, including the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy, the Society of Physician Assistants in Otorhinolaryngology-Head & Neck Surgery, the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, and the American Academy of Physician Associates.

In addition to her clinical work, Alexis is committed to giving back to her community. Since 2015, she has served as a Lector at St. Stephen Martyr Catholic Church in Chesapeake, Virginia, where she shares her faith and dedication with her congregation. Furthermore, as a PA Student Preceptor at Eastern Virginia Medical School since 2016, she has played a vital role in mentoring the next generation of healthcare professionals, providing them with invaluable guidance and hands-on experience.

Physician Assistants maintain their certification by consistently demonstrating competency in providing high standards of medical and ethical care. This commitment allows them to explore different fields of medicine and take on a variety of roles. In 90 days, Alexis will be transitioning into a new specialty in Gastroenterology. She is excited for the opportunity to expand her expertise and continue delivering excellent care to the community in this new area of practice.

Alexis Buettner Gurecki's unwavering dedication to her profession, community, and patients exemplifies the values of Eastern Virginia Ear Nose & Throat Specialists. Her commitment to service and education highlights the essential role that healthcare professionals play in enriching the lives of those they serve.
