

Anticipation Builds for STAY FORTE: A Film That Resonates with Global Audiences

Los Angeles, California Apr 3, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - EXCLUSIVE

April 3, 2025, exclusive Los Angeles

Anticipation Builds for STAY FORTE: A Film That Resonates with Global Audiences

The film community is abuzz with excitement as Doron Eran, a distinguished global filmmaker, prepares to unveil his latest work, the anti-war film, STAY FORTE. Currently in post-production, with an aim to finish in time for CANNES, STAY FORTE is a strong contender for the Directors' Fortnight at this year's CANNES Film Festival.

Shot in Tbilisi, Georgia, and produced in the US, the film features powerful performances from acclaimed actors Selma Blair and Judd Hirsch. STAY FORTE tells the harrowing story of three Israeli hostages who, after a desperate escape from the terror tunnels of Gaza, tragically fall victim to friendly fire.

Based on true events, this glimpse into the never before seen story of the horrors inside the terror tunnels. Director Doron Eran shines a light on the profound consequences of war, stressing that its impact is felt by both sides and highlighting the painful reality that conflict is a crime against humanity.

Doron Eran is a celebrated filmmaker whose work has garnered critical acclaim on the international stage. With previous accolades at Cannes' Directors' Fortnight for producing WHITE NIGHT and Un Certain Regard for STALINS DISCIPLES, his storytelling continues to resonate across borders, making him a vital voice in contemporary cinema.

“War is not just a battle between nations; it is a deep wound that scars humanity. STAY FORTE is a reminder that behind every statistic are real lives forever changed. We must confront the true cost of conflict and strive for a world where understanding and compassion prevail over violence.” – Doron Eran

STAY FORTE is produced in association with Urban Tales Productions, with producers Tomer Almagor and Gabrielle Almagor bringing their expertise and vision to this important project.

The film generated significant interest at the European Film Market during Berlinale, with distributors eager to secure rights, recognizing the film's potential to spark meaningful conversations.

STAY FORTE is set to be a significant addition to the cinematic landscape, offering a unique, behind the scenes look into the Gaza conflict and the ravages of war.

For press inquiries, interviews, and further information, please contact:

Salomé Breziner

salome.breziner@me.com

310-779-1821

#StayForte #Cannes2025 #DoronEran #FilmFestival #AntiWarFilm

Media Contact

SEMBLANCE

@icloud.com

3107791821

Source : URBAN TALES

See on IssueWire