Los Angeles, California Apr 15, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Shaneen Bonner's new award-winning screenplay, "Expelled: The True Story Of Exorcisms," is a "Special Jury" and highly award-winning script that several film festivals have recognized. The screenplay is based on the journey of Shaneen's encounters with the paranormal realm. Soon after accepting the call to preach, Shaneen experienced some disturbing paranormal activities that started in her home.

When the object started moving, demonic beings began to manifest themselves. Shaneen called an exorcist expert she studied under for answers. The exorcist expert started training Shaneen in exorcism. After years of training, Shaneen began training on how to expel demonic spirits from people.

The screenplay and soon-to-be documentary explore the supernatural realm of the paranormal, which Shaneen has performed as a preacher and teacher of exorcisms. In addition to these paranormal activities, she experiences miracles of divine healing, such as people being healed of cancer.
