Manchester, United Kingdom Apr 21, 2025 (issuewire.com) - Business Insolvency Helpline is pleased to announce the opening of its new office in the heart of Manchester, located on the prestigious King Street.

This strategic expansion reflects the company's continued growth and commitment to supporting businesses across the North West facing financial challenges.

The new premises will allow the team to provide tailored insolvency advice and support services more efficiently to local businesses, further strengthening their presence in the region

Business Insolvency Helpline Partner Sarah Mitchell remarked, "Every business we assist faces its own unique set of challenges and circumstances as it develops. Our goal is to unite a team of seasoned Partners to guide business owners and directors through whatever situations they may encounter."

In a recent statement, Business Insolvency Helpline reaffirmed its dedication to identifying the most suitable paths for businesses to progress and tackle financial or operational hurdles. By working closely with clients to gain deep insight into their operations and overall health, the firm believes its new presence in Manchester will significantly enhance its ability to support organisations across the North West region.

To lead the Manchester office, Business Insolvency Helpline has appointed James Carter as Partner. With over two decades of experience across restructuring, transaction services, and corporate advisory, James also serves on the board of the North West Recovery & Turnaround Association. His appointment underscores the firm's focus on offering tailored, expert advice to regional businesses and financial institutions.

Sharing his thoughts on the new role, Carter said, "I'm thrilled to be joining the Business Insolvency Helpline team and to be heading up the new Manchester office. What drew me in was the company's proactive approach — engaging early with clients to protect and maximise business value. Here in Manchester, my team and I will continue to support companies and their stakeholders in navigating complex transitions and business challenges."
