Mother's Day is the occasion to celebrate and honor mothers and mother figures for their unconditional love, care, and selflessness. Observed on the second Sunday of May (This year: May 11, 2025), the day acknowledges the role of mothers in society and expresses gratitude for the unique role mothers play in our lives. It's the time of the year to express appreciation for the mother figures who hold the family unit together and strengthen family bonding.

Giving flowers on Mother's Day is a cherished tradition, as they provide a heartfelt way to thank mothers for their unwavering dedication to nurturing children, and resonate well with the nurturing qualities of mothers. Pink carnations are often associated with Mother's Day, while lilies, particularly the Stargazer or Easter Lily, are among the popular choices for Mother's Day flowers USA. The long-lasting nature of orchids serves as a lasting reminder of the mother's appreciation. On the other hand, the sunny disposition of sunflowers makes them the lively choice for online flowers for Mother's Day.

Flowers like tulips, peonies, and roses are commonly available in full bloom in May, making them a perfect choice for Mother's Day flowers for all USA cities including New York, California, Denver, Miami, Washington, and Richmond. Other popular choices for online flowers for Mother's Day include a traditional round bouquet with mixed flowers, a mix of wildflowers, a bouquet of single-flower arrangements, and potted flowering plants like orchids.

To help you make Mother's Day memorable, Flora2000 has come up with some curated collections, such as:
