Renowned Hospitalist and Infectious Disease Specialist at CoxHealth Medical Center South

New York City, New York Apr 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Frederick Ntum Lobati, a distinguished hospitalist and board-certified infectious disease specialist at CoxHealth Medical Center South, is celebrated for his unwavering commitment to providing high-quality, compassionate care to hospitalized patients. With decades of experience in internal medicine and infectious diseases, Dr.

Lobati has established himself as a leading figure in the medical community, known for his exceptional clinical skills and dedication to medical education.

Born in Cameroon, Dr. Lobati's career is marked by a rich tapestry of roles that include clinical director, assistant professor, and consultant. His extensive knowledge encompasses traditional internal medicine, infectious disease management, and the intricacies of medical education. As a member of the CoxHealth Diversity Committee, he advocates for inclusive healthcare practices and supports initiatives that foster a welcoming environment for diverse communities.

Dr. Lobati's educational background is impressive, having earned his MD from the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Cologne, Germany, in 1988. He furthered his training in tropical medicine and community health care, solidifying his expertise in addressing complex health challenges. He is board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in both Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases.

In recognition of his contributions to the field, Dr. Lobati has received multiple Physicians Recognition Awards with Commendation from the American Medical Association, highlighting his commitment to excellence in patient care. His passion extends beyond local boundaries, as he actively participates in medical missions to support education and philanthropy in Cameroon, demonstrating his dedication to improving global health.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Lobati is the founder and president of the Show-Me Mercy Charity Organisation, which focuses on delivering healthcare and educational resources to underserved populations. His professional memberships include esteemed organizations such as the American Medical Association, the American College of Physicians, and the Infectious Disease Society of America.

When he's not caring for patients or engaging in philanthropic efforts, Dr. Lobati enjoys reading historical books and learning about the nations of the world. His holistic approach to medicine, combined with his commitment to community service, makes him a valuable asset to the healthcare landscape.
