

Exterior Plas Expands Services with Heritage Windows Installation in Essex

Essex, UK - April 16 - Exterior Plas, a respected name in bespoke doors and glazing, is proud to announce the launch of its expert heritage windows installation in Essex. Known for preserving the classic beauty of period properties.

Essex, United Kingdom Apr 23, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - As a long-standing heritage windows manufacturer in Essex, Exterior Plas combines traditional aesthetics with the latest window technology. This means customers can enjoy beautiful, energy-efficient and secure windows that maintain the original charm of their property.

Whether you live in a Victorian townhouse, a Georgian cottage, or are restoring a historic building, Exterior Plas can help retain its authentic style while improving comfort and performance.

A Blend of Tradition and Innovation

Heritage windows are made to look like traditional timber styles, but with the benefits of modern materials like uPVC, aluminium, or steel. These windows are ideal for homeowners who want a classic appearance with the practical advantages of durability, low maintenance, and improved insulation.

“Homeowners are often torn between keeping the historical look of their property and upgrading to modern standards,” said the Managing Director of Exterior Plas. “Our heritage windows offer the best of both worlds—timeless design with 21st-century performance.”

Designed to mimic the elegant features of period windows, these products include slim sightlines, traditional hardware and glazing that suits older buildings—all without compromising on energy ratings or safety.

Trusted by Essex Homeowners and Professionals

With more properties in Essex falling under conservation regulations, the need for high-quality heritage window solutions is growing. Exterior Plas works closely with homeowners, architects, and local planning authorities to ensure their products meet both aesthetic and legal requirements.

From initial survey to final installation, the Exterior Plas team supports clients every step of the way. Every window is made to measure in Essex, ensuring a perfect fit for each unique building.

The Projects Manager at Exterior Plas, added: “Our heritage windows have been designed with real homes in mind. We take time to understand the building’s character, listen to what the homeowner wants, and deliver something that not only looks right but also performs brilliantly in all weather conditions.”

Exterior Plas offers:

- Manufacturing of bespoke heritage windows that meet local conservation standards
- Professional heritage window installation across Essex with an experienced, friendly team
