God Said, It's Not Your Time is not just a memoir—it's a testament to the power of faith, hope, and the belief that there is a greater plan for us all. With themes of redemption, grace, and divine intervention, this book is sure to inspire readers to reflect on their own lives and trust in the perfect timing of the universe.

About the Authors:

Chad is a former U.S. Army soldier and later became a U.S. Ohio National Guard soldier, serving the United States from 1993 until 2000, when his life-changing accident occurred. In the Army, he was a Heavy and Light Equipment Operator, Tractor Trailer driver, Combat Engineer, and a Combat Lifesaver. He has dedicated his life to serving our great nation and, by accident, to helping others find healing through faith, personal development, and spiritual growth. When given the opportunity, he gives speeches to students at schools, youth groups, and religious groups. His journey of overcoming misfortune has been inspirational for numerous individuals looking for direction and strength in dealing with their own issues that trouble them on a daily basis.

Emily is a High School English teacher in a small town/village in Midwest Ohio. She has dedicated her life to helping others as well as finding healing through faith, personal development, and spiritual growth. With her major transformation from being obese and the 2-year long journey it took to become a "healthy" weight, she has learned what it takes to live a healthy lifestyle that she can maintain long into the future. Emily considers her journey of overcoming adversity as a source of inspiration for countless individuals seeking guidance and strength in their own lives.

"In the darkest of moments, I realized that God was speaking to me—not in words, but in silence, in whispers of peace, and in the clarity of knowing that I was not alone."

— Emily Klosterman, God Said, It's Not Your Time

"The moment I stopped fighting my circumstances, I heard God's voice. His message was simple, yet profound: 'It's not your time.' And with that, everything changed."

— Chad Klosterman, God Said, It's Not Your Time
