Fort Lauderdale, Florida Apr 24, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Hello Recruiter, an innovative AI-driven recruitment technology startup, today announced the successful closure of its pre-seed funding round, marking a significant milestone in the company's mission to transform hiring through intelligent, human-first technology.

Funding Highlights

- Funding Round: Pre-seed
- Amount: Undisclosed
- Key Investors: Codestand LLC and Microsoft Startup Fund

Company Overview

Hello Recruiter is a cutting-edge AI recruitment platform designed to empower recruiters and businesses by providing intelligent hiring tools that prioritize human potential. The company's proprietary technology focuses on reducing unconscious bias, enhancing candidate evaluation, and creating more meaningful connections between employers and talent.

"Our vision is to reimagine recruitment as a collaborative process where AI augments human decision-making," said Avi Tiwari, Co-Founder at Hello Recruiter. "This funding validates our approach to creating technology that supports recruiters, not replaces them."

Strategic Focus

With this pre-seed investment, Hello Recruiter plans to:

- Accelerate product development
- Expand research into ethical AI applications
- Enhance the platform's ability to provide nuanced, context-aware candidate insights
- Build a team of top-tier AI and recruitment experts

Investor Perspective

“Hello Recruiter represents a transformative approach to talent acquisition,” said Ayush Jain from Codestand LLC. “Their commitment to developing AI that amplifies human potential is exactly the kind of innovation we seek to support.”
