Originally from the beautiful landscapes of Utah, Julie brings over three decades of experience in the healthcare industry, specifically as a Dental Assistant, where she honed her skills in patient care and communication. In 2012, she moved to Elko, where she not only continued her dedication to healthcare by founding a Dental Assisting School but also began exploring her passion for real estate.

In 2017, Julie took a significant step forward by obtaining her real estate license. This move was driven by her desire to embrace new challenges and opportunities that allowed her to blend her love for teaching with her commitment to helping others achieve their dreams. Since then, she has become a trusted resource for first-time homebuyers, providing knowledgeable and patient guidance throughout the buying and selling process.

"I believe that buying a home is one of the most important decisions a person can make," says Julie. "I take pride in making sure my clients feel confident and informed at every stage of the transaction. It's about more than just closing a deal; it's about building relationships and supporting families in a meaningful way."

Julie's approach to real estate is deeply rooted in her commitment to her community. She values the close-knit culture of Elko, where residents come together to support one another through local events, auctions, and charitable causes. Her success as a realtor is attributed to her trustworthiness and genuine desire to build lasting relationships with each client she serves.

In her role, Julie takes the time to clearly explain contracts, market trends, and all aspects of the transaction process. She understands that for many, especially first-time buyers, the journey of homeownership can be exhilarating yet overwhelming. By providing clear communication and unwavering support, Julie ensures her clients feel equipped to make informed decisions.

When she isn't busy helping clients find their dream homes or navigate the complexities of real estate transactions, Julie enjoys exploring the great outdoors. Whether it's hiking, camping, or traveling in her RV, she appreciates the beauty of nature and the adventures it brings.

For those looking to buy or sell a home in Elko, Spring Creek, or the surrounding areas, Julie Chamberlain stands ready to assist.
