

Kuremara Joins Sydney Disability Connection Expo 2025 to Address NDIS Navigation Challenges

Provider to showcase support solutions and connect with the community at Australia's major NDIS event, May 23-24.

Sydney, New South Wales May 3, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Kuremara is excited to announce its participation in the upcoming Sydney Disability Connection Expo 2025, offering a valuable opportunity for NDIS participants, families, and carers to connect directly with support providers. The event will be held at the International Convention Centre (ICC) Sydney on May 23-24, 2025, from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

This premier expo provides a much-needed platform connecting NDIS participants, carers, families, and support professionals with over 20 NDIS specialists and service providers under one roof. It aims to improve access to essential supports and foster a stronger, more informed community – a mission Kuremara actively supports.

"At Kuremara, we envision a future where disability support empowers individuals," says Saru Chifadza, Kuremara Care's Chief Operating Officer. "The Sydney Disability Connection Expo is a key opportunity to collaborate, share solutions, and help individuals overcome barriers to achieve their goals."

Join us and over 20 other NDIS specialists! Explore services, get expert advice, and enjoy a range of inclusive activities:

- Live dance performances
- Art therapy & exercise sessions
- Fun zones with face painting, jumping castle & more!

Visit the Kuremara team at the expo to learn how we can support your NDIS journey towards greater independence and wellbeing. See you there!

Admission to the event is free, but registration is essential. Attendees can secure their place via the official Eventbrite link: Register Here
