New York City, New York Apr 24, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Texas Tech Physicians of El Paso proudly announces the addition of Landy Vanessa Luna Diaz, MD, a highly skilled pulmonologist and intensivist, to its esteemed Internal Medicine team at Alberta. With a passion for providing exceptional care to patients facing pulmonary diseases and critical illnesses, she brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the El Paso community.

Dr. Luna Diaz specializes in a broad spectrum of pulmonary conditions, including chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), asthma, interstitial lung disease, and sleep disordered breathing. Her clinical proficiency also extends to the management of critically ill patients requiring advanced care, invasive and non-invasive mechanical ventilation. With her extensive training and compassionate approach, Dr. Luna Diaz is committed to improving the quality of life for her patients.

Her medical career began at Universidad de Cartagena in Colombia, where she earned her Doctor of Medicine Degree. Dr. Luna Diaz then completed her residency in internal medicine at the renowned Jackson Memorial Hospital/University of Miami in Miami, Florida. Recognizing the importance of advanced training, she pursued additional fellowships in pulmonary and critical care medicine, as well as sleep medicine, at the prestigious Stanford University School of Medicine in California. This rigorous training has equipped her with the skills necessary to navigate the complexities of pulmonary and critical care.

Dr. Luna Diaz is board-certified in internal medicine, critical care medicine, sleep medicine, and pulmonary disease, affirming her commitment to excellence in patient care. As a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine, she adheres to the highest standards of medical practice.

In addition to her professional qualifications, Dr. Luna Diaz is fluent in both English and Spanish, enabling her to effectively communicate with a diverse patient population. Her bilingual skills enhance her ability to provide personalized care to all patients, fostering strong doctor-patient relationships built on trust and understanding.

As a valued member of Tech Physicians of El Paso, Dr. Luna Diaz continuously strives to make a positive impact on the health and well-being of her patients. Her dedication to research and continuous learning ensures that she remains at the forefront of advancements in pulmonary and critical care medicine.
