

Lea Wiviott Boracchia, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2025 Top Agent

Lea Wiviott Boracchia: Powerhouse Entrepreneur, Financial Visionary & Real Estate Trailblazer

New York City, New York Apr 20, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Palm Desert, California – Lea Wiviott Boracchia, an esteemed real estate professional and financial planner, proudly leads Wealth Partners Real Estate, a boutique firm dedicated to providing high-value, client-focused real estate and financial solutions in the vibrant Coachella Valley. Known for its dynamic growth and thriving nonprofit community, the area has become a hub of upscale development and cultural events, making it an ideal market for investors and residents alike.

With a comprehensive background that includes real estate investment, mortgage loan origination, and certification as a listing agent, Lea brings over 20 years of experience to her clients. Her multifaceted expertise ensures that whether clients are buying their first home, selling a property, or expanding their investment portfolio, they receive tailored guidance that meets their unique needs. Wealth Partners Real Estate specializes in both residential sales and vacation rentals, supported by a dedicated team of specialists who are deeply familiar with the Greater Palm Springs area.

In addition to her role at Wealth Partners Real Estate, Lea is the managing partner of Boracchia Wiviott Wealth Partners, a fee-based financial planning firm she founded. This dual leadership distinction makes her the only woman to own and operate both a financial planning firm and a prestigious real estate brokerage, solidifying her impact in the industry. Her approach combines critical thinking and strategic communication, offering clients an integrated pathway to wealth building through her proprietary Thrive Planning Framework. This framework focuses on long-term financial success through strategic investment, tax efficiency, and legacy planning.

Lea's passion for property and financial literacy is deeply rooted in her family history, inspired by her immigrant grandfather's journey into real estate. Today, she continues that legacy by empowering clients to leverage property ownership and financial planning as a means of wealth creation, lifestyle achievements, and legacy strategies. Whether guiding seasoned investors, first-time buyers, heirs navigating inheritance, or new agents seeking mentorship, Lea's empathetic intuition and commitment shine through. She goes beyond traditional client relations to uncover unspoken goals and guide clients toward unexpected opportunities.

Before venturing into real estate and finance, Lea was a journalist and editor-in-chief of Xpress, an award-winning publication in San Francisco recognized by the Society of Professional Journalists as the Best Student-Run Magazine. Her commitment to education and empowerment led her to establish Success Strivers, a blog that operates under her nonprofit organization, Imagine Equality. Through this initiative, Lea offers resources and learning materials aimed at training the next generation of leaders in financial and property literacy. Additional insights and articles authored by Lea can be found on her websites, WealthPartnersRE.com, BWWealthPartners.com, and ImagineEquality.org

When she's not immersed in real estate and financial planning, Lea enjoys spending as much time as possible with her children, family, and friends, traveling, exploring new restaurants, and indulging her passion for interior design and organization. Her interests reflect her commitment to creativity and community, enriching her professional endeavors.

"My journey led me to be here for you as a committed real estate professional and, most recently, a real estate broker whose motivations are my family, the legacy I create for those who I serve, and the community," Lea states. "I don't do what's easy; I do what's right. Whatever it takes, we get it done. That's the Wealth Partners effect, whether you are a first-time homebuyer or an eleven-figure investment fund, every client matters to us; we are dedicated to serving our community and beyond."
