

Livento Group Inc. Announces Auditor Transition to Support Uplisting Plans

Livento is a company focused on film production and artificial intelligence, announces a strategic change in its independent auditor to support the company's path toward uplisting to the Nasdaq Capital Market.

New York City, New York Apr 11, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - The newly appointed audit firm is tasked with re-auditing financial statements for the fiscal year 2024. While this process will result in a delay in filing the 2024 annual report, it is a necessary and strategic step to meet the rigorous financial reporting standards required by Nasdaq.

The Company is also in the process of finalizing the selection of a top-tier audit firm with a proven track record of guiding companies from the OTC markets to Nasdaq. This move is expected to significantly accelerate Livento Group's uplisting process.

"The transition to a new auditor is a pivotal move as we advance our uplisting efforts," said David Stybr, CEO of Livento Group. "This change is essential to align our reporting and governance standards with those expected by national exchanges. We remain fully committed to delivering transparency and value to our shareholders."

In parallel, the Company continues working with FINRA on its corporate name change process. Livento Group submitted a detailed response to FINRA's latest request in mid-March and is currently awaiting final feedback from FINRA's senior management.

Further updates on the auditor appointment and uplisting progress will be provided in due course.
