Dynamic Physician Assistant Innovative Leadership and Commitment to Education Enhance Healthcare Delivery in Wisconsin

New York City, New York Apr 21, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Advocate Health proudly announces the leadership of Ms. Mary Jo P. Wiemiller, PA-C, MS, a Certified Physician Assistant, who has stepped into the role of Lead Advanced Practice Professional in Urgent Care. With a wealth of experience spanning cardiovascular surgery, thoracic surgery, general surgery, critical care, emergency medicine, and PA education, Ms. Wiemiller's multifaceted background positions her as a pivotal force in advancing healthcare delivery across Wisconsin.

Ms. Wiemiller's journey in healthcare began with a Bachelor of Science in Bacteriology from the University of Wisconsin in 2001, followed by a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies from Finch University of Health Sciences in 2003. She launched her career at the Medical College of Wisconsin, where she quickly rose to become the Chief Cardiothoracic Surgery PA. During her tenure, she also served as Program Director for the Postgraduate PA Surgery Program and held an adjunct faculty position, demonstrating her commitment to both patient care and PA education.

In 2004, Ms. Wiemiller began teaching at Marquette University Physician Assistant Program as adjunct faculty, eventually transitioning to a full-time role in 2009 as Program Director and Chair of the Marquette University PA Program. Her dedication to shaping future healthcare professionals saw her ascend through academic ranks from Clinical Assistant Professor to Clinical Professor. Notably, she directed the PA Studies program and the Postgraduate Emergency Medicine PA program in partnership with Aurora Health Care, blending clinical leadership with academic innovation.

Throughout her extensive career, Ms. Wiemiller has maintained a steadfast commitment to education, a commitment that continues as she transitions to her new leadership role at Advocate Health in 2025. Her work at Marquette from 2008 to 2025 underscores her enduring dedication to training the next generation of healthcare providers.

Active participation in various professional organizations highlights Ms. Wiemiller's commitment to the PA profession and healthcare education. She is involved with the Society of Emergency Medicine for Physician Assistants, the American Academy of Physician Assistants, the Wisconsin Academy of Physician Assistants, the Physician Assistant Education Association, the Catholic Association of PA Programs, and the Association of Postgraduate PA Programs. Her engagement with these organizations reflects her passion for advancing PA education and fostering collaborative efforts within the healthcare community.

Beyond her professional achievements, Ms. Wiemiller is a compassionate global citizen, actively supporting causes such as the American Friends of Journey House Rwanda (AFJHR), the American Diabetes Association, and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society through their Light the Night campaign. When asked about the key to her success, she humbly states, "Patience, and my patience," illustrating her dedication to both her profession and the individuals she serves.

In her leisure time, Ms. Wiemiller enjoys boating, water sports, and snow skiing, with her favorite getaway being the tranquil shores of Anna Maria Island, Florida. Her multifaceted career, commitment to education, and compassionate approach to patient care make her an invaluable asset to Advocate Health and the communities it serves.
