About the Book

Inspired by the global grief experienced during COVID-19, “What Does Your Heaven Look Like?” serves as a heartfelt tribute to those who transitioned alone, their loved ones unable to be by their side. Through a series of thought-provoking questions, Coleman encourages readers to ponder their own beliefs about the afterlife and their expectations of a final resting place.

This book is more than a meditation on loss—it is a call to honor those who have passed and to embrace the idea that every ending marks a new beginning. Coleman’s words remind us that no labor of love is ever in vain and that our departed loved ones continue to live on in memory and spirit.

About the Author

Davida Coleman first stepped into the literary world with her debut book, As It Was in the Beginning, So Shall It Be in the End, seven years ago. An accomplished poet, artist, and community advocate, she is dedicated to uplifting and healing others.

Although born in New York, she now resides on the West Coast, where she serves her community by working with youth and leading Soul One, LLC, an organization focused on holistic healing in mind, body, and spirit. A devoted mother of three and a former foster parent, Coleman views her service to the community as a reflection of her faith and commitment to making a difference in the lives of others.

A Personal Message from the Author

In her own words, Davida Coleman shares an uplifting message for readers and supporters:

“Please trust yourself. Never give up on yourself. Think big. Dream. You can do all things.”
