

New PETC Expands Recalls for OPRA Exam and Launches Advanced Pharmacist Registration Courses

New PETC, a leading provider of pharmacy education and training, has announced an expansion of its Recalls for OPRA exam resources and the launch of updated Pharmacist registration courses.

Ras al-Khaymah, United Arab Emirates Apr 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - In a significant move to support aspiring pharmacists and healthcare professionals, New PETC has expanded its resources for Recalls for the OPRA exam and unveiled a refreshed lineup of Pharmacist registration courses. This initiative is part of New PETC's commitment to providing high-quality, accessible training that helps candidates succeed in their licensing and professional development goals.

The Recalls for the OPRA exam offered by New PETC are designed to help candidates better understand and remember key topics, regulations, and case-based scenarios frequently tested in the exam. These recall sessions focus on the most critical and high-yield areas, ensuring learners are well-prepared and confident on exam day.

"Our goal is to simplify the exam preparation process by offering focused, easy-to-understand recall materials that make studying more effective," said a spokesperson for New PETC. "We've seen tremendous improvement in pass rates for students using our Recalls for OPRA exam sessions, and we're proud to continue evolving these offerings."

In addition to OPRA exam support, New PETC is excited to launch an upgraded series of Pharmacist registration courses. These courses are structured to provide a clear, step-by-step pathway for pharmacy graduates and internationally qualified pharmacists who wish to register and practice in compliance with current standards.

The Pharmacist registration courses include comprehensive modules covering pharmacy law, patient care, dispensing protocols, ethics, and real-world case training. Participants benefit from expert-led sessions, practice exams, and one-on-one mentoring options, making New PETC a one-stop solution for professional advancement.

"At New PETC, we understand the challenges that pharmacy students and professionals face when preparing for registration and regulatory exams," the spokesperson continued. "By combining our Recalls for OPRA exam with robust Pharmacist registration courses, we offer the tools and guidance necessary to succeed in a competitive healthcare environment."

New PETC's resources are accessible both online and in-person, making them suitable for professionals balancing work, study, and family commitments.
