Transforming Gastrointestinal and Liver Health with a Focus on Nutrition, Obesity, and Gut Wellness

New York City, New York Apr 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Niel Dave, MD, a dedicated gastroenterologist and hepatologist, is redefining patient care at Southwest Gastroenterology in sunny Avondale, Arizona. With a focus on general gastroenterology, hepatology, food science, nutrition, obesity, and gut health, Dr. Dave is committed to empowering his patients to take control of their health and reduce their reliance on medications.

At Southwest Gastroenterology, the focus is on diagnosing and treating a wide range of gastrointestinal disorders in both men and women. The practice prides itself on its core values of collaboration, communication, commitment, and patient empowerment. Each physician is dedicated to building strong relationships with patients and providing evidence-based care tailored to meet individual needs. Patients seek expertise for conditions such as irritable bowel syndrome, celiac disease, gallstones, and acid reflux, knowing they will receive the most accurate testing and effective treatment protocols available.

A California native, Dr. Dave earned his Bachelor of Science in Biology from California State University, Bakersfield, in 2013. He then pursued his Medical Degree from Ross University School of Medicine, graduating in 2017. His extensive training included a residency at New York Presbyterian and Weill Cornell Hospital in Brooklyn, followed by specialized training in gastroenterology, hepatology, and obesity at HCA Florida Aventura Hospital.

Dr. Dave's academic and professional achievements are impressive. He was named to the Dean's List at California State University, Bakersfield, in 2013 and received the Kern Hospital Honors Merit Scholarship Award in 2016 and 2017. As a testament to his dedication and skill, he was awarded the Primary Care Intern Doctor of the Year Award in 2018 and the Primary Care Resident Doctor of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Dr. Dave earned the Teaching Resident of the Year Award in 2020 and has been recognized multiple times for his excellence in clinical documentation.

Beyond his clinical practice, Dr. Dave actively engages in charitable and philanthropic initiatives. He serves as a subject matter expert and speaker for GLUED Global Consulting, sharing his knowledge to benefit others. Additionally, he is a member of the Board of Advisory for the health tech startup Noticare, contributing to healthcare innovation. Dr. Dave also dedicates his time as a speaker coach for Debate and Forensics in Bakersfield, nurturing the public speaking skills of young talents.

In his personal life, Dr. Dave enjoys traveling, skiing, hiking, and cooking, balancing his professional commitments with a passion for exploring the world and savoring culinary experiences.
