Raven Resources Corp. Completes Strategic Sale of Buffalo Property

Dallas, Texas Apr 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Raven Resources Corp. has completed the sale of their property in Buffalo, Missouri, after subdividing the property and selling sections to a developer, executing a strategic exit that aligns with its long-term real estate investment strategy.

The Buffalo property was acquired in July of 2023. At the time, CEO Paul Scribner said, "Buffalo represents an opportunity to expand our strategic development initiatives. We continue to identify and invest in high-potential real estate assets that complement our broader vision."

Raven Resources Corp.'s strategy is rooted in selectivity, strategic execution, and trust. Raven Resources takes a long-term, value-driven approach. Raven is highly selective in the opportunities they pursue, ensuring that every deal aligns with their commitment to value creation. Raven continues to boast a 100% closing record.
