

Robert Slater Announces Candidacy for U.S. Congress in Texas's 18th District

Entrepreneur and Non-Profit Leader Aims to Bring Fresh Vision and Community Focus to Washington

Houston, Texas Apr 23, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Robert Slater, a respected Houston entrepreneur, non-profit leader, and longtime community advocate, announced today that he is running for the U.S. House of Representatives in Texas's 18th Congressional District. With deep roots in the community and a proven record of leadership, Slater is stepping forward to represent the district with a bold, inclusive, and solutions-driven approach.

"Houston is my home. It's where I built my businesses, raised my family, and fought for positive change," said Slater. "I'm running for Congress because our district deserves a representative who shows up, listens to the people, and delivers real results."

Slater is the owner of Slate Bar & Grill, a popular Houston restaurant and gathering space known for its welcoming atmosphere and community-centered events. He also founded the Global PEACEMEAL Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to youth empowerment, conflict resolution, and international peace-building programs.

With this unique combination of business acumen and humanitarian leadership, Slater plans to champion policies that expand access to economic opportunity, support small businesses, invest in education, reform criminal justice, and strengthen the social safety net.

"This campaign isn't about political ambition—it's about public service," Slater added. "We need leadership that understands the challenges of everyday Houstonians and isn't afraid to roll up their sleeves to make things better."

The campaign will officially launch with a kickoff event on [insert date], where Slater will outline his full policy agenda and introduce his team. His campaign is expected to emphasize grassroots organizing, civic engagement, and coalition-building across communities.
